Cornell Dining Contract

Terms and Conditions: Summer 2025

The following terms and conditions apply to all Summer Dining participants for May 27, 2025 through August 17, 2025.

Meal Plan Enrollment

The Cornell Dining Contract is a legally binding contract and cannot be altered or modified without the prior consent of Cornell Dining. The Cornell Dining Contract is valid for the period May 27, 2025 through August 17, 2025, and becomes binding when you sign the Dining Enrollment Form. This Cornell Dining Contract is drawn with due regard to New York State law, and your signature on the Dining Enrollment Form indicates acceptance of the obligations under New York State law. Your plan membership and privileges are non-refundable and nontransferable; you cannot use your plan or Summer Bucks to obtain food or drink for others. No credits will be given for missed meals. Account balances cannot be applied to/from other semesters or to/from other accounts. Execution of the Cornell Dining Contract is not a commitment of admission to or continued enrollment in Cornell University.

Meal Plan Program Schedule

Opening and Closing Dates. Summer Combo Plan Meal begins with breakfast May 27, 2024 and ends with dinner on August 17, 2024. Summer Bucks Plan is valid from May 27, 2025 through dinner, August 17, 2025.

Scheduling. Campus Life reserves the right to modify dining program hours of operation as demand dictates. Campus Life will make every reasonable effort to continue dining services during periods of weather emergency, power shortages, union actions, and similar circumstances.

Payment. You are required to pay for the meal plan for which you are enrolled. Payment may be made by major credit card, or bursar billed for special programs.

Use of the Identification Card. Your plan membership card is your Cornell photo ID card validated for the plan in which you are enrolled. To enter a dining unit, you must let the doorchecker mechanically scan your ID card. One meal will be deducted from your plan's meal balance upon each entry into a dining room. Any meal plan member who cannot present a valid card, for whatever reason, will be denied entrance. Campus Life reserves the right to have an employee inspect ID cards at any time and to request other appropriate identification.

Lost Cards. If you lose your Cornell ID card, you must report the loss immediately to the Office of the University Registrar. To protect your membership in meal, debit, and laundry plans, you can flag your card online as lost at get.cbord.com/cornell Contract Termination. Your contract may be terminated due to violation of these Terms and Conditions or disciplinary action by Campus Life and/or Cornell University in accordance with University policy and the Student Code of Conduct during the summer period. You will receive no refund for any meal plan charges that have been billed or are scheduled to be billed for the period. Meal plan or debit meal plan members apprehended for misuse of food or property, allowing another person to use their meal card, or any other attempt to defraud may be fined and/or removed from the dining program if found responsible by Cornell University's judicial system. Refunds will not be given for such mandatory terminations. Penalties assessed for breach of contract are independent of those that may be imposed by the Office of the Judicial Administrator.

Food is intended to be consumed on the premises. In the residential meal plan dining rooms, the food you select must be eaten in the dining area, unless you use a takeout container provided by Cornell Dining to take your meal to go.
